Overview

This course is an introduction to international tax.

We cover forms of doing business, types of tax, double tax relief, tax treaties, withholding tax, controlled foreign corporations, thin-capitalisation, transfer pricing, BEPS, the ATAD and the MLI – as well as tax planning. The emphasis is on practical international tax and includes specific practical examples and real life case studies.

The course is focused on international tax principles, and how they affect international business operations and tax planning. The case studies are focused on understanding the key concepts in international tax, and learning to identify the key issues for tax planning.

The course can be attended for the week; you can enrol for one of two phases or attend for just one day:

Phase One - Principles of International Taxation (days one and two). This reviews various kinds of taxes and taxpayers including branches, trusts, hybrid entities and takes a thorough look at residency and source. This includes various case studies.

Phase Two - tax treaties and selected international tax topics (days three to five). This includes: thin-capitalisation, CFC, EU Parent-Subsidiary Directive, a day on tax treaties, EU taxation, transfer pricing, and anti-avoidance – including BEPS, the ATAD and the MLI. This includes various case studies.

Attend for one day, one phase or the full week

Sheltons

Sheltons Group is an international tax advisory, international tax training, accountancy and business services firm with offices in Denmark, London, Malta, Sydney and soon Milan. Sheltons-SITTI (Sheltons International Tax Training Institute), part of Sheltons Group, has provided international tax training since 1997 in numerous cities throughout the world, often many times in each city.

Ned Shelton

This course is conducted by Ned Shelton.

- Founder and Managing Partner, Sheltons Group (1994)
- www.SheltonsGroup.com N.Shelton@SheltonsGroup.com

Ned Shelton has focused on advising internationally operating clients for more than 25 years, whilst based in Australia and in Europe. Throughout his career, Ned has specialised in international tax, tax treaties and related areas.

Tax treaties has been Ned's primary area of expertise for the past 20 years.

Under the banner of Sheltons-SITTI, Ned has organised and chaired many conferences and conducted numerous courses on international tax in various cities throughout the world.

Ned has conducted courses on an in-house and open basis in 25 cities in Europe, as well as in Singapore, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Mumbai, Delhi, Sydney, Mexico City, Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo, Mauritius and Curacao, often several times in each location.

Among in-house clients are international accounting networks, large accounting firms, law firms and various multinationals, including some of the world's largest oil and gas operators as well as the major national oil and gas entities in several jurisdictions - including European, Latin American and Asian countries.

Ned has also conducted in-house courses for the South Korean tax office (NTS), the Mexican tax office (SAT), the Norwegian Tax Office (NTA) and the Danish tax office (Skat, now Skattestyrelsen).

Apart from the Sheltons-SITTI courses and conferences, Ned has spoken at more than 80 international tax conferences organised by other parties including universities, professional bodies, government bodies, accounting networks and private firms, in some 35 countries - primarily on the subject of tax treaties and related areas.

Ned is continuously consulted by clients from all over the world on international tax matters, such clients ranging from individuals and funds to publicly-listed multinationals.

Ned has written a 650-page book on The Application and Interpretation of Tax Treaties at the request of Butterworths Tolleys / Lexis Nexis UK, one of the world's most highly regarded legal publishers.

Ned qualified as a Chartered Accountant in Australia in and holds degrees in Commerce and in Law from the University of New South Wales, Sydney. He was a Tax Manager at Arthur Andersens in Sydney before moving to Europe. Before Arthur Andersens he was with Mann Judd (now HLB Mann Judd) in Sydney.

Sheltons is now in its 27th year of business - Ned having commenced Sheltons in the Netherlands in 1994.

Sheltons Group is an entirely independent firm of tax advisers, accountants and business advisers, with offices in Australia, the United Kingdom, Denmark and Malta.

Each office provides a full range of accounting services and high-level local and international tax advice, as well as legal assistance and a wide variety of other services such as the provision of local directors, public officer (in Australia) and registered office, VAT/GST administration, payroll administration and the full range of tax compliance services, just to name some.

Apart from his native English, Ned speaks Danish and reads Dutch, Norwegian and Swedish.

Course Benefits

The course will:

- Give you an essential background in international tax principles
- Explain the application of tax treaties to your business operations
- Explain the effect of cross-border withholding tax on dividends, interest and royalties
- Explain the essential business structures of branches and subsidiaries
- Review tax transparent entities such as partnerships and explain their advantages
- Explain tax planning for international dividend, interest and royalty flows
- Set out the essential principles of transfer pricing and anti-avoidance rules
- Bring you up to date with the latest in the area of BEPS, the ATAD and the MLI
- Enable you to network with other tax professionals and discuss their knowledge

Target Audience

The Blue Course is designed for persons who either

- have a good knowledge of domestic taxation in at least one jurisdiction, or
- have significant international business experience where tax has often played a role.

You are not expected to have any international tax education or experience, but by the end of the week you will have developed substantial knowledge. You might have some knowledge of international tax but need to have it refreshed, or want your existing knowledge confirmed.

The target audience includes in-house corporate tax staff, taxation professionals, lawyers and accountants and banking and finance professionals, who are involved with internationally operating businesses. It is also of benefit to tax officials and academics.

Testimonials

"Very good, useful course, well delivered!!", Sander van der Fluit, Transfer Pricing Lead Upstream, Shell International Ltd, Netherlands

"Excellent presenter, kept us interested through out the whole week, knowledgeable helpful, kept a good pace, and kept us amused with cartoons and stories. As a beginner's course it starts with the basics, giving a good grounding in those, and also useful for day to day work problems", Lindsey Ritchie, Senior Tax Advisor, Shell UK Limited, United Kingdom

"Fantastic course and a great presenter", Peter Hyman, BHP Billiton, Australia

"Excellent presentation style. Explains some difficult topics in a clear way. Allowed internal discussion. The course covered a number of areas that are new to me", Herman Steyn, BHP Billiton, South Africa

"John made the content of the course interesting and kept me engaged throughout. Loved the cartoons!", Alesha Robinson, BHP Billiton, Australia

"An excellent presentation by a very knowledgeable presenter. An excellent course. I look forward to the next Shelton's course!", Peter Vukasovic, BHP Billiton, Australia

"I think Ned Shelton is one of the best lecturers I have heard; and the contents of the Blue & Silver Courses are indispensable for any tax attorney, so I highly recommend them to all tax specialists." Ana Bertha Thierry, Senior Attorney and former General Administrator of Large Tax Payers of the Tax Administration Service (SAT) in Mexico, Yanez Franco Et Al, Mexico

"I believe that the Blue Course is indispensable for everyone who works as a tax analyst. Wide and varied concepts are covered, double tax relief, interpretation of tax treaties and many others are good examples; showing how valuable this Blue Course is. The classes are well structured, being alternated with theory, practical content and the case studies. Beyond that I can assure that Mr Shelton is very clear and always available to discuss and solve any queries and doubts." Henrique Cesar Tupper, Economist Consultant of Tax Planning Department of E&P, Petrobras Petroleo Brasileiro S.A, Brazil

"Very good course, it includes all the topics of interest with practical cases and with Ned's experience it is easy to understand them." Georgina Bossa, Ritch Mueller, Mexico

"For a tax specialist working in Brazil; Shelton's courses are a must! This statement is based on the fact that any international taxation course within the country is focused on the consequences of domestic tax legislation on international transactions, not on single concepts of international taxation. Moreover, it is also a great opportunity to be more familiar with OECD models and concepts, since Brazil is not an OECD member and, thus, we tend not to give the necessary attention to its important and influential definitions on international taxation." Felipe Gamboa Alves da Costa, Direct Taxes Consultant, Shell Brasil Ltda., Brazil

"The entire course is of great value and absolutely recommendable. I really appreciate Mr. Shelton for lecturing the very "fundamentals" of international taxation at an understandable level and sharing his rich tax experiences. Moreover, as a translator myself, working with such a renowned tax expert was such a thrill." Jeeyeon, Tax Dept, Translator, Government National Tax Service, Korea

"It is a really complete and well prepared course. I really like it. This is one of the best courses I have ever taken." Daniela Inigo, Ritch Mueller, Mexico

"An International tax course requires great knowledge and expertise. I'm glad that I have found it in this Shelton's-SITTI Blue Course, as well as Ned Shelton's great ability as a speaker and a teacher." Marcelo Tertuliano, Tax Manager, Companhia Vale do Rio Doce, Brazil
